PROGRAM OF THE LEGNICA JEWELLERY FESTIVAL SILVER 2015

Legnica Jewellery Festival SILVER: 28th April - 7th June 2015
Culmination - openings of the exhibitions: 15th - 16th May 2015

Legnica Jewellery Festival SILVER is the biggest and the most significant in Poland jewellery event, organized from over 30 years by the Gallery of Art in Legnica. Every year in its framework is presented over twenty individual and group exhibitions of Polish and foreign artists and a number of accompanying events, like: theoretical seminar, authors lectures, jewellery and fashion shows, jewellery competitions and workshops, concerts and a variety of artistic actions and happenings taking place outside in the city space. All exhibitions are accompanied by catalogues.

24TH LEGNICA INTERNATIONAL JEWELLERY COMPETITION BOUNDARIES

The competition and - being its result - exhibition is the main event of the Festival. Artists' task is to submit works on a given topic - a different one every year - characterised by an original creative idea and representing a high artistic and technical level. Preferred are concept, value and meaning of creative expression. Submitted works are qualified to the exhibition and awarded by the international jury.

SILVER SCHOOLS

Inaugurated in 2001 a cycle of exhibitions presents the leading European art academies and high schools specialising in contemporary jewellery and design. Over 40 schools from Germany, Czech Republic, Italy, Spain, Great Britain, Finland, Belgium, Slovakia, Sweden, Estonia and Poland have been presented so far. In 2015 the exhibition will be showcasing works of professors, graduates and students from Germany (Hochschule Wismar, Faculty of Design) and Lithuania (Vilnius Academy of Arts, Telšiai Faculty, Metal and Jewellery).
