

Touch

30th International Jewellery Competition TOUCH

Touch

This time - in the online era - we would like to refer to the feature that defines jewellery in its most material and - at the same time - the most sensual aspect. Let us invoke touch - the first sense through which we get to know the world, which gives us a sense of security, intimacy and trust. Jewellery worn on the body, coming into contact with skin receptors, provoking haptic contact, has always been the wearer's closest prop. We offer you a contemporary interpretation of this nostalgia in the hope that the objects of the most personal use will not be replaced by touch screens.

AIM, TASK AND PRINCIPLES OF WORK EVALUATION

The aim of the Competition is a wide presentation of the latest achievements of contemporary jewellery art. The works should be jewellery in a broad sense of the word, represent a high artistic and executive level, include an original creative concept and a clear reference to the theme of the Competition. The Organizers do not set any limits as to the materials and techniques used. However, emphasizing the 40-year tradition of the Festival, we suggest the use of silver.

The competition works are evaluated by an international jury. The jury qualifies the works for the post-contest exhibition and awards statutory prizes. The jury's decisions are final – they cannot be challenged in the court of law.
